

interior designer

LIZ CAAN

◆ With a style that's both sophisticated and eclectic, Liz Caan goes further than most local designers dare, layering bright colors and bold patterns for ultra-dramatic results. Vintage and heirloom furniture, animal prints, and contemporary pieces blend beautifully in her artful, energetic rooms.

1066 Centre St., Newton, 617-244-0424,
lizcaan.com.

fine rugs and carpeting

LANDRY
& ARCARI

Exquisite handwoven Persian, Turkish, and Tibetan rugs abound at this showroom, favored by connoisseurs on the hunt for Orientals. The selection of contemporary carpets—patterned wools, natural sisal—also makes Landry & Arcari a great place for broadloom. And if you can't find the rug of your dreams, the team here will design it for you.

333 Stuart St., Boston,
617-399-6500, landry
andarcari.com.

UPHOLSTERER

McLaughlin Upholstering Company

➔ In 1889, Hugh McLaughlin ran a one-man show. Today, his grandson Kevin is devoted to preserving the art of handmade upholstery. In accordance with the labor-intensive practices developed more than a century ago, every piece is upholstered twice—first with cotton muslin, then with the final fabric. Kevin and his artisans specialize in custom jobs, creating pieces that fit perfectly into your life.

1813 REVERE BEACH PKWY., EVERETT, 617-589-0761, MCLAUGHLINUPHOLSTERING.COM.